

The Firm

Established in 1920, Livingston Barger is a dynamic, diversified firm. The firm members have achieved recognition in their respective disciplines and are recognized as Leading Lawyers in Illinois. Livingston Barger has been rated preeminent in terms of the legal ability of its lawyers and has been designated the highest rating in general, ethical standards by Martindale-Hubble, the world's leading guide to the legal profession.

Livingston Barger provides a full range of legal services in central Illinois to a diverse mix of local, regional and national clients. The firm has a strong general civil practice with an emphasis in commercial litigation, medical liability, health and casualty defense, and employment law. The firm also has a strong transactional emphasis including business law, commercial transactions, land use and zoning, agribusiness and estate planning. Our offices are strategically located at the crossroads of the state and the counties we serve are easily accessible for cost-effective representation.

Firm members are frequent speakers on legal matters and author literature in the firm's practice areas that appear in peer publications.

Livingston Barger has committed to the professional development of our partners, associates and staff.

Livingston Barger is one of the most recognized and respected law firms in the State of Illinois.
